Ratatatat Fairtrade Style!

Our Green Impact Project Supervisor, Gabija Svedaite, at ended four children' ac vity session at the Library on 26 February 2023. During these sessions 29 children were involved in colouring and educa onal ac vi es using the Fairtrade Founda on's Earthcubs Ac vity Pack. 26 adults also at ended the session as parents, family members and friends.

An Instagram campaign on UW_sustain was designed for use over the Christmas period to highlight Fairtrade gi op ons to students and sta . Here is an example of the graphics to be used:

The University and Students' Union sells a wide variety of Fairtrade products across its cafes, and shop. We use Fairtrade footballs in Student Societies and Fairtrade suppliers are regularly invited onto campus to sell their products. Many products, including all drinks are used by catering for hospitality and conferences, are also Fairtrade.

Procurement

Our Procurement Strategy was updated in 2022 and includes a specific commitment to 'promote and increase our usage of Fairtrade goods where appropriate or other ethically sourced goods'
